Use of Dangerous Materials and Implements in Busking - Code of Practice

Cityprom recognises that many buskers use materials and/or implements in their performance that may reasonably be considered as dangerous.

Cityprom also acknowledges that, in the hands of skilled and experienced performers, the use of fire or superficially dangerous implements such as knives and swords within circus or juggling acts lends an appealing theatrical element that is popular with the viewing public.

The purpose of this code of practice is to ensure that the use of dangerous materials and implements is restricted to buskers who have highly developed skills and experience in their use and who are able to ensure the safety of both the performer and the viewing public.

1. Approval of the use of dangerous materials and/or implements

Buskers using dangerous materials and/or implements must hold a current Special Busking Permit to use such items in their performance. Buskers holding Special Busking Permits must adhere to all terms and conditions of the standard busking license.

All dangerous implements to be used in the performance, as defined under the Dangerous Goods Act, Clauses 14, 31, 239, 240, 242, covering the use of prohibited items, must have edges blunted and rendered non dangerous (including chain saws and mechanical items). An implement is determined to be blunt if it is incapable of piercing human skin when pressure is directly applied to its edge or point against human skin.

Where flammable liquids are to be used, fuels are limited to;

- Kerosene
- Citronella Oil or scented lamp oils

Where flammable liquids are to be used, all storage and transport must be as per the Australian Dangerous Goods Code, section 7, including:

- Portable plastic containers to be no greater than 5 Litre capacity
- Containers to be conspicuously marked "HIGHLY FLAMMABLE"

2. Restrictions on Special Busking approvals

- All restrictions applying to holders of a Standard Busking Approval will apply to holders of Special Busking Approvals.
- Special Busking Approvals shall only be issued to individual buskers, not groups. Therefore, each member of a group must hold a current Special Busking Approval.
